POETRY.

PRUSSIA AND AUSTRIA. [Punch describes the difficulty between Austria and Prussia in these stanzas:] Prussia was a robber, Austria was a thief: Prussia and Austria Stole a Danish fief.

Prussia sald to Austria.

"You don't mean to go?"

Austria said to Prussia.

"Out of Holstein? No!"

Prussia said to Austria.
"Wherefore do you arm?"
Austria said to Prussia.
"Of you in alarm."

Prussia said to Austria,
"I den't mean to fight."
Austria said to Prussia,
"My intention, quite,"

Prussia said to Asturia,
"Drop your warlike game."
Austria said to Prussia,
"When you do the same."

Prussia said to Austria,
"What's the end to be?"
Anstria said to Prussia,
"Hit me, and you'll see." Prussia said to Austria,
"Come, this brag won't do."
Austria said to Prussia,
"Sir, the same to you."

Austria said to Prussis. "Thank you, so will 1."

MIDNIGHT DISPATCHES

From New York.

New York, May 29.-Congress Hall, at Saratoga, was entirely destroyed by fire this morning. Only a small portion of the furniture was saved. Loss $200,-000. No other hotel was injured The reports of over issues of Erie stock are believed to rest on a slender foundation. Cotton quiet-sales, 15,000 bales at 40@42; receipts from all parts, 15,000 bales; exports, 19,000; stock, 372,000. Foreign.-The Cunard steamer, Persia, has arrived.

More failures are reported. The Bank of Loudon has failed Its liabilities are £1,000,000.

There are numbers of other failures. Hostilities have almost commenced. Notwithstanding the negotiations for a conference, armaments are still progres-

Cotton is dull-week's sales, 5000 bales middling uplands at 121d; consuls, 811; 5 20s, 65@66.

From West Point. WEST POINT, May 29.-Lieut. Gen. Scott died at 11 s.m. to-day.

From Farther Point. FARTHER POINT, May 29 .- The steamer

David has arrived from Liverpool, with dates to the 17th and 18th. The bullion in the Bank of England has decreased £32,000, and the resumed notes have increased £425,000. The ship Heginia, from New Orleans, was badly damaged by fire, at sea

From Washington.

WASHINGTON, May 29.-In the Senate e Colorado bill was passed over the President's veto.

The reconstruction resolution was then considered.

Johnson moved to strike out the third section, which disfranchises the Confederates until 1870, and the section was stricken out by a unanimous vote. Several amendments were offered, embodying the views of the Republican caucus. They excluded from Federal and State offices those who had been members of the Confederate Congress, or had been Legislative or Judicial officers, or took part in the insurrection, or gave aid and comfort thereto. Congress may, however, comove such disability by a two-thirds

In the House the bill to continue the Freedmen's Bureau bill passed; yeas 96, nays 32.

The United States Consul at Liverpool has received official advices that the steamer City of Dublin would carry back to New York 15,000 bushels of wheat, of American exportation.

The President has appointed William Faxon chief clerk of the Navy, and Assistant Secretary of the Navy, vice Capt. Fox; resigned.

F. C. Collingsworth made the extraordinary run of 2256 points, in a game of billiards to-day.

Don Frederick Boulds presented his credentials to-day, as Minister from Peru. The usual diplomatic courtesies were passed. The following appointments of Assistant Assessors of Internal Revenue have been made: Alexander H. Hall, of Mississippi; Charles F. Hascall, of Charleston, S. C.; Horace B. Marshall, of Texas; Lucius J. Bruner, of Little Rock; W. H. H. Watson, of Atlanta, Ga.; Read G. Watkins, 3d District of Alabama, and Edward Lacroix, of the 2d District of Alabama.

J. B. Smith was appointed Consul to Athens, Greece. The President of the Merchants' National Bank has made an offer to the United States Treasurer to compromise with the Government and all other depositors by paying forty per cent of the amount deposited. The other deposits will be submitted to the authority baving the right to accept them on the part of the Government.

Gen. Scott was out on Saturday afternoon, but showed then signs of early demise, and on Sunday he began failing fast, though no one anticipated his death, and he was entirely conscious until the moment be expired. He recognized the chaplain of the post just before dying, and grasped his hand in silence.

The following was issued to-day: EXECUTIVE MASSION, May 29.-The President with profound sorrow announces to the people of the United States the death of Winfield Scott, late Lieutenant General of the army. On the day which may be appointed for his funeral, the several Executive Departments of the Government will be closed. The heads of the War and Navy Departments will respectively give orders for the payment of appropriate honors to the memory of the deceased.

[Signed] Andrew Johnson, President.

The tax bill, which has passed the House, contains a provision making the export duty on cotton five cents per nound.

The State Department learns from our Minister at Paris that unnaturalized citizens of this country are liable to conscription in France, but for their AND ITS CONTINUOUS ALL RAIL CONnaturalization they will report to the Maire of the district in which their names are enrolled, and, procuring evidence of their naturalization as citizens of the United States, their names will, probably, be erased, when requested.

From New Orleans. New ORLEANS, May 29 .- Cotton easy; sales to-day 1,300 bales at 38@37c. The Louisiana country papers give sad accounts of the floods and distress attending them. Provisions are continually being forwarded to the sufferers. The corn, cane and cotton in twelve parishes is completely devastated.

The work of closing Bouligny crevasse s progressing, but the floods are high. Gen. Baird succeeded Gen. Canby in the command of this department to-day. The weather is as cold as autumn.

From Cincinnati.

CINCINNATI, May 29. - Flour dull wheat dull and irregular; corn 60@70e; oats 43@50c; whiskey $2 23; pork $31 50; bulk ments 124@174c; bacon 144@19c. The Commercial reports the move ments of large numbers of Fenians, bound for Canada, and large shipments of arms. The secrecy of their movements indicates "business" of a grave

From Baltimore.

BALTIMORE, May 19.—The Executive Committee of the National Union party met this morning. Montgomery Blair, Postmaster Purnell, and other prominept persons, were present. Resolutions excluding reporters were passed, and the proceedings were conducted privately.

Can't Hurt Thom. The Radicals think negro suffrage can't hurt them-they are Abolitionists. They are like the small boy caught

"My boy," said a bystander, "if you swear, don't you know that you will go to the bad place?"
"Well, I gueth not," lisped the juve-nile; "my father'th a Univerthalith."

We reckon the punishment would come all the same in both cases. MEDICAL.
